TRIP PROFILE

We ride 518 km, about 30% off road, in 10 cycling days. We designed the route to give a wide variety of riding. There are some first-class single-track trails to gentle back roads. Northern Thailand is a mountainous region, and there are very few flat rides, however, most of the big climbs are optional and on tarmac. Many roads and trails traverse the mountains, and our route winds up and down hillsides. We guarantee you will never be bored by the riding. There are some outstanding descents and stunning views across rolling hillsides and valleys at almost every turn!

Although our escort vehicle is always close by and our guides have powerful two-way radios, some rides are not supported due to the remoteness of the trails. Your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of cold drinks and fresh fruit.

We use a nice variety of accommodation including a village homestay as well as some deluxe resorts. Every day you will get a comfortable room (except with the homestay) and often a swimming pool to jump into at the end of the ride.

Suitability: You should be confident of your physical condition and bike-handling skills. Some climbs are challenging, and some rides are off road, but overall, the trail isn't too technical. It can be managed by most riders, but it is advisable to have at least some off-road and preferably downhill experience. Fitness, of course, will be a huge asset but it is not crucial. It is possible to dodge the big climbs. If you are in doubt, please contact us for advice or a list of references.

Biking Conditions: We have a mixture of tarmac, vehicle width dirt roads, and single track. Some off-road riding experience is an advantage.

Day 1 Meet in Chiang Mai

Welcome to Chiang Mai, the "Rose of the North"! We'll meet at our tour hotel in the early afternoon before transferring to Wiang Kum Kam, an archaeological site featuring the ruins of a 13th-century city. Surrounded by peaceful countryside, it's the ideal place to get comfortable on our bikes. From here, we follow the course of the Ping River south for about 15 km, cross a bridge, and loop back north along quiet roads through lush longan orchards. To avoid the busy traffic, we'll jump in the support van for a quick transfer back to the hotel. In the evening, we'll gather for a welcome dinner. If you need help with airport transfers or pre-tour hotel bookings, just let us know.

Day 2 Chiang Mai - Wat Ban Den - Chiang Dao

We begin the day with a 1.5-hour transfer to a small temple near Mae Kuang Dam, where we set up our bikes and hit the trails. The first part of the ride covers 15 km of single-track, gravel, and sandy paths leading through a dense forest, part of which is home to teak trees, one of the world's most prized timbers and protected from logging in Thailand. Emerging from the forest, we reach the Bua Tong Waterfall, known as the "sticky waterfall" due to its unique grippy limestone surface. From here we continue another 15 km along well-paved roads to Mae Ngat Reservoir, where we'll have lunch overlooking the calm waters of this man-made lake. The final section then takes us on a mix of paved and dirt roads through small villages, rice paddies, and fruit orchards. Our ride concludes at Wat Ban Den, a sprawling temple complex renowned for its colourful architecture and large sculptures of mythical creatures. We transfer around 1 hour to our hotel further north in Chiang Dao district, where the towering Chiang Dao Mountain, Thailand's third-highest peak, majestically overlooks the valley.

Day 3 Chiang Dao - Fang

We begin with an easy 12 km ride to the sacred Chiang Dao Caves, where we'll stroll through narrow chambers housing an eclectic mix of stalagmites, stalactites, Buddha images, and other religious relics. Afterward, we weave across the valley floor, filled with farms and framed by rugged limestone massifs. To the east lie the mountains of Sri Lanna National Park, and we'll tackle some climbing as we rise along the hillside contours. The roads vary between paved countryside routes and hard-packed dirt paths through farms and forests, offering a stunning ride in northern Thailand's rural hinterland. At around 70 km, we join a quiet provincial road leading us down into the Fang valley. By around 90 km, we'll call it a day and skip the busy highway by transferring 30 minutes to our hotel in the town of Fang.

Day 4 Fang - Tha Ton

Today's route takes us to the far north of Thailand, where the mountains form a natural border with Myanmar. We begin by leaving Fang and heading onto paved country lanes, passing expansive rice paddies and village temples dotted along the way. This region is also famous for its vast orange orchards. By the 40 km mark, we reach the Kok River, the lifeblood of the area, and follow its eastern banks to the market town of Tha Thon. By around 55 km, we'll arrive at our riverside hotel. For those seeking a challenge, there's the option to tackle a steep, winding mountain road up to the hilltop Tha Thon Temple, which offers sweeping views over the valley and into Myanmar. After soaking in the vistas, we'll descend back to our tranquil hotel, where peaceful gardens and a refreshing pool await. The afternoon is yours to relax and enjoy at leisure.

 Maekok River Village Resort  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 61km  +576m  -591m

Day 5 Tha Ton - Chiang Rai

We start things a little differently today. After a short transfer to a pier, we'll hitch a ride on a long-tail boat that takes us downstream on the Kok River. After about an hour, we'll disembark and saddle up to follow the river as it cuts through a narrow valley dotted with hill tribe villages and surrounded by forested slopes and terraced agricultural fields. The first 20 km will be along a mix of dirt roads and unevenly paved, occasionally cratered, rural lanes. We'll even cross a suspension bridge! Gradually, the roads become smoother, and after around 30 km, we spill out onto the plains surrounding the city of Chiang Rai. Rather than heading straight into town, we take a detour to visit the eccentric White Temple, Chiang Rai's top attraction, where traditional Thai temple architecture meets modern art and pop culture. After our visit, we ride to our hotel in Chiang Rai City. In the evening, we'll head out for a stroll through the lively Night Bazaar, full of local products, trinkets, and snacks.

 Laluna Hotel and Resort  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 66km  +533m  -574m

Day 6 Doi Mae Salong Ascent

This morning, we'll transfer about an hour to our cycling start point, stopping en route to visit the eclectic Black House — one of Chiang Rai's unique colour-themed attractions, renowned for its dark, mysterious art collection. We then begin our ride at the base of Doi Mae Salong, one of Chiang Rai's most beautiful mountains offering one of the north's most iconic climbing challenges! The first 15 km offer a gradual warm-up, but soon the gradients pick up. A winding road takes us through tea plantations, coffee farms, cornfields, and remarkable views over the highlands of Chiang Rai Province. Around the 35 km mark, we reach the mountaintop village of Mae Salong, a community almost entirely populated by descendants of Chiang Kai Shek's Chinese Nationalist Kuomintang Army, giving it the look and feel of China's Yunnan province rather than Thailand. From the village, a particularly challenging 4 km climb up to a mountaintop temple awaits, with gradients reaching double digits! The views from the top make it worthwhile, and we then descend back down and complete the distance to our highland hotel in the tea fields.

 Mae Salong Flower Hills  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 46km  +1506m  -849m

Day 7 Doi Mae Salong Descent

Located at the summit of Doi Mae Salong, we have nowhere to go but down! The first half of today's ride features a stunning descent into the valleys. We follow a secondary road down the mountain, maintaining a steady pace to navigate some uneven surfaces while soaking in views of the forests, hill tribe villages, and terraced agricultural fields etched into the hillsides. Although the ride trends downhill, there are still undulations and short climbs to keep our legs moving! By the 18 km mark, we return to lower ground for a relatively flat ride to our next stop: the popular Choui Fong Tea plantation, renowned for its stunning rows of tea bushes and high-quality brews. A final 5 km, including an uphill burst towards the end, leads us to our nature-based mountain resort for the night.

 Phu Chaisai Mountain Resort  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 37km  +447m  -1042m

Day 8 Phu Chaisai - Golden Triangle - Chiang Saen

Departing from our hotel, we ride 4 km to a forest temple where local monks collect alms on horseback in the mornings. We then continue on rural roads flanked by rice paddies and fruit orchards. While this section is flat, the jungle-clad mountains ahead hint at the climbing that awaits us! At the 15 km mark, we begin our ascent of another of northern Thailand's iconic climbs: Doi Tung Mountain. The road gradually winds uphill, featuring occasional double-digit gradients. By the 30 km mark, we reach the top of the pass, which straddles the border with Myanmar. From there, we enjoy a thrilling descent with expansive views of the rugged mountains and deep jungles of Myanmar. By the 50 km mark, we return to lower ground, riding through the fertile rice-growing region of eastern Chiang Rai Province to reach the Golden Triangle, where the borders of Thailand, Myanmar, and Laos converge at the confluence of the mighty Mekong River. We end the ride here and transfer a short distance to our riverside hotel in the town of Chiang Saen. A sundowner overlooking the river to celebrate today's impressive cycling feat may be in order!

 Siam Triangle Hotel  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 78km  +1463m  -1587m

Day 9 Chiang Saen Loop - Chiang Mai

This morning, we embark on a scenic loop into the countryside of the Golden Triangle. Once notorious as a hub for the illicit opium trade, this region has shed its troubled legacy, transforming into a peaceful, agrarian landscape and a thriving cross-border commercial hub. Starting from our hotel, we begin with a 10 km stretch along the shoulder of the main road which runs parallel with the Mekong River. We then veer inland and ride on quiet, rural roads back to our hotel in Chiang Saen, the final few kilometres taking us along the remnants of fortification walls of the ancient town which once stood here. After lunch, we hop in the van for a transfer back to where it all began: Chiang Mai, with a total driving time of around 4.5 hours.

 The Rim Resort  Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

 Ride 35km  +243m  -243m

Day 10 Doi Suthep Downhill - Chiang Mai Departure

We'll make the most of our final morning in the north with one of Thailand's most accessible and exhilarating downhill mountain biking trails. We begin with a drive up to Wat Doi Suthep, the most sacred temple in northern Thailand. Perched on a mountaintop overlooking Chiang Mai, it offers stunning panoramic views on clear days. At the heart of the temple complex is a large, stepped, gilded stupa—a celebrated symbol of Chiang Mai's deep-rooted spirituality. After exploring the temple, we continue further up the mountain to Doi Pui, where we saddle up and begin our descent. Winding our way down for nearly 20 km, the trail takes us through the thickly forested slopes of Doi Suthep-Pui National Park and highland farms cultivated by hill tribe villagers. Please note that due to safety reasons, e-bikes are not permitted on the downhill trail. If you have hired an e-bike then we will replace it with a regular mountain bike for this ride. The ride concludes at the Huay Tueng Thao Reservoir, a favourite local recreation spot with a large lake. We'll enjoy a celebratory farewell lunch before transferring to your post-tour hotel or the airport.

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section.

If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is a mountain bike, preferably with front suspension in good mechanical order.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

Visitors from 93 countries can enter Thailand for 60 days without applying for a visa. See here if your country is on the list. If you do not hold a passport from one of these countries please contact the Thai embassy or consulate nearest to you about applying for a visa. If you intend to stay for more than 60 days you will also need a visa. Please check this page for more details and the latest updates. Please ensure you hold a passport with at least 6 months of validity remaining. You will need to show proof of an onward flight out of Thailand to be eligible for the visa on arrival. If you do not possess a ticket proving your exit from Thailand within 60 days of arrival, you may be denied boarding.

Health

We recommend that you visit a travel medical doctor and ask about the following vaccinations: typhoid, polio, tetanus and hepatitis A. A certificate for Yellow Fever is required when arriving from an infected area within six days.

Weather

Thailand generally has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. The North and Central region have a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. Northeast Thailand has a humid hot and dry weather alternatively with medium rain while the coastal areas of the east is humid and hot with intermittent rain. The South of Thailand has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity.

There are three seasons: from March to June it is hot and dry, with temperatures between 27°C/80 F and 40°C/104 F, with night temperatures in the 20s. The rainy season is from July to October, but temperatures are slightly lower, because of the effect of the rain. During this time it will not rain continuously, but in sharp bursts, and the sun can come out quickly. The cooler season is from October to February, with average temperatures between 20°C/68 F and 30°C/86 F.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner. Most meals are local and feature noodles, rice, curries, and soups. Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Cold water, some energy-restoring local fruit, and soft drinks are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. Beer is freely available everywhere but is NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for traveling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveler of the same gender and if we cannot match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra dollars, perhaps US$20 per day, for incidentals.

Money

The Thai currency is the baht. ATMs, which are abundant, are the easiest ways to get Thai baht. Have a supply of US dollars in cash on hand, just in case your card doesn't work. Banks or the rarer private moneychangers offer the best foreign-exchange rates. Credit cards are accepted in big cities and resort hotels but you'll need baht for family-run guesthouses or restaurants.
