TRIP PROFILE

We ride a total of 156 km over 4 cycling days. The journey takes us across valley floors, rolling hills, and rice field plains as we travel from Chiang Mai to Chiang Rai. The cycling takes place on a variety of road surfaces, with approximately 80% paved and 20% unpaved. We ride between 30 - 40 km during the first three days, with the option of an additional afternoon ride on Day 2. On day 3 we ride just over 50 km. There are some hills to tackle throughout, but overall the gains are mild. With several vehicle transfers before and/or after our rides, we avoid busy main roads and focus on the most enjoyable routes.

Besides fabulous cycling routes, touring highlights of the trip include visits to beautiful Buddhist temples, caves, local markets, hill tribe villages, and traditional cottage industries. For many, the most memorable moments are encounters with Thailand's incredibly welcoming locals, always eager to wave hello and cheer us on! Accommodations in Chiang Dao (Day 1) and Tha Thon (Day 3) are character-rich and cosy hotels equipped with a pool. In Fang (Day 2), we stay in a simpler, but still more than adequate stopover hotel - there is no pool. Food is another highlight of the tour and we'll enjoy both Thai classics as well some northern specialties you may not have heard of.

The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of water and refreshments along the way.

Suitability: This trip is suitable for anyone with a reasonable level of fitness. You can expect a fairly gentle ride each day with none of the distances being overly long. Being in the mountainous north means that a hill is never far out of sight, but we have designed the route to avoid any prolonged or overly steep ascents. Anyone looking to challenge themselves, can opt for an optional afternoon ride to Fang on Day 2 and a short but steep climb to a hilltop temple on Day 3. Navigating narrow village lanes, bumpy country roads, and the odd stretch of hard-packed dirt or gravel requires some handling skills but does not involve technical manoeuvring. The main challenge of the tour is keeping up stamina over back-to-back riding days and cycling in the tropical heat. The pace is leisurely and with plenty of refreshment stops so riders with less experience are more than welcome to join. The support vehicle is always nearby to offer refuge to any weary cyclists.

Biking Conditions: We ride on a mix of well-paved secondary roads, village lanes in varying conditions, and gravelly farmer paths. Paved surfaces are mostly smooth tarmac but you should also expect country lanes which can contain potholes, road debris, and gravel. Although much of the route is on quiet countryside roads with minimal traffic, we will regularly share the roads with cars, motorbikes, and buses. There are a few unavoidable sections along the main roads, especially coming in and out of cities and near popular attractions

Although we've scheduled our departures to avoid the wettest times of the year, rainfall can occur at any time. We generally ride rain or shine, but based on the guide's discretion or your comfort level, modifications to the planned route can be made. Additionally, from March through April, northern Thailand experiences its annual burning season, when smoke from agricultural field clearings causes smog. While we avoid this period entirely, the exact start date varies each year, and some early burnings may occur in February, impacting air quality on parts of the route.

Day 1 Chiang Mai - Wat Ban Den - Chiang Dao

In the morning, we pick you up from your pre-tour hotel in Chiang Mai City and transfer around 1.5 hours to Bua Tong Waterfall. Known as the “sticky waterfall” due to its unique grippy limestone surface, this natural wonder invites you to climb its cascades and take in the lush surroundings while we prepare the bikes. From here, we begin our ride on smooth roads winding through the serene forests bordering Sri Lanna National Park. A swift descent leads us into a landscape of vast farmlands framed by mountain backdrops. At the 15 km mark, a short, spicy climb rewards us with views of the Mae Ngat Reservoir. We’ll cycle along its steadfast walls to reach our lunch spot overlooking the waters of this picturesque man-made lake. In the afternoon, we ride on a mix of paved and gravel roads through small villages, rice paddies, and fruit orchards. Our ride concludes at Wat Ban Den, a sprawling temple complex renowned for its colourful architecture and large sculptures of mythical creatures. We transfer around one-hour to our hotel further north in Chiang Dao district, where the towering Chiang Dao Mountain, Thailand’s third-highest peak, majestically overlooks the valley.

Day 2 Chiang Dao - Sacred Caves - Fang

We begin with an easy 12 km ride to the sacred Chiang Dao Caves, where we’ll stroll through narrow chambers housing an eclectic mix of stalagmites, stalactites, Buddha images, and other religious relics. Afterwards, we weave across the valley floor, dotted with farms and framed by rugged limestone massifs. At the 35 km mark, we saddle off and fast-track further north via a one-hour vehicle transfer. We’ll stop for lunch and explore another fascinating cave temple: Wat Tham Tap Tao. Nestled at the foot of a mountain, the cave features gilded Buddha statues illuminated by sunlight creeping in. You then have the option of a gentle afternoon ride along paved backroads into the town of Fang, where we spend the night. The total distance of this optional ride is around 50 km with 300 metres of elevation gain — you can cycle as much as you like before jumping in the van.

Day 3 Fang - Tha Ton

Today's route takes us to the far north of Thailand, where the mountains form a natural border with Myanmar. We begin by leaving Fang and heading onto paved country lanes, passing expansive rice paddies and village temples dotted along the way. This region is also famous for its vast orange orchards. By the 30 km mark, we reach the Mae Kok River, the lifeblood of the area, and the market town of Tha Thon which sits on its banks. From here it is only a quick zip to our riverside hotel but for those seeking a challenge, there's the option to tackle a steep and winding 2 km climb up to the hilltop Tha Thon Temple, which offers sweeping views over the valley and into Myanmar. After soaking in the vistas, we'll descend back to our tranquil hotel, where peaceful gardens and a refreshing pool await. The afternoon is yours to relax and enjoy at leisure.

Day 4 Tha Ton - Chiang Rai

We start things a little differently today. After a short transfer to a pier, we'll hitch a ride on a long-tail boat that takes us downstream on the Kok River. After about an hour, we'll disembark and saddle up to follow the river as it cuts through a narrow valley dotted with hill tribe villages and surrounded by forested slopes and terraced agricultural fields. The first 20 km will be along a mix of dirt roads and unevenly paved, occasionally cratered, rural lanes. We'll even cross a suspension bridge! Gradually, the roads become smoother, and after around 30 km, we spill out onto the rice field-covered plains surrounding the city of Chiang Rai. Rather than heading straight into town, we take a detour to visit the eccentric White Temple, Chiang Rai's top attraction, where traditional Thai temple architecture meets modern art and pop culture. After our visit and lunch, we end our adventure with a transfer to your post-tour hotel or the airport in the city of Chiang Rai. Please let us know if you need assistance with hotel bookings or airport transfers after the trip.

Breakfast, Lunch

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Bike hire is included in the tour. The bikes are well-known makes of hybrid or mountain bikes (depending on the tour) with lightweight alloy frames, 24- to 27-speed gearing, v-brakes and Shimano components and front suspension.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

Visitors from 93 countries can enter Thailand for 60 days without applying for a visa. See here if your country is on the list. If you do not hold a passport from one of these countries please contact the Thai embassy or consulate nearest to you about applying for a visa. If you intend to stay for more than 60 days you will also need a visa. Please check this page for more details and the latest updates. Please ensure you hold a passport with at least 6 months of validity remaining. You will need to show proof of an onward flight out of Thailand to be eligible for the visa on arrival. If you do not possess a ticket proving your exit from Thailand within 60 days of arrival, you may be denied boarding.

Important Update: As of May 01, 2025 all non-Thai nationals entering Thailand by air, land, or sea must complete the Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC) online before arrival. Please fill out the details on the official website here within three (3) days before your arrival in Thailand. This is a free process - beware of fake websites that charge a fee. If you are already travelling within the three days before your planned arrival in Thailand, then we suggest completing the form while you are at a hotel with reliable Wi-Fi. It only takes a few minutes.

Health

We recommend that you visit a travel medical doctor and ask about the following vaccinations: typhoid, polio, tetanus and hepatitis A. A certificate for Yellow Fever is required when arriving from an infected area within six days.

Weather

Thailand generally has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. The North and Central region have a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. Northeast Thailand has a humid hot and dry weather alternatively with medium rain while the coastal areas of the east is humid and hot with intermittent rain. The South of Thailand has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity.

There are three seasons: from March to June it is hot and dry, with temperatures between 27°C/80 F and 40°C/104 F, with night temperatures in the 20s. The rainy season is from July to October, but temperatures are slightly lower, because of the effect of the rain. During this time it will not rain continuously, but in sharp bursts, and the sun can come out quickly. The cooler season is from October to February, with average temperatures between 20°C/68 F and 30°C/86 F.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner. Most meals are local and feature noodles, rice, curries, and soups. Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Cold water, some energy-restoring local fruit, and soft drinks are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. Beer is freely available everywhere but is NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for traveling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveler of the same gender and if we cannot match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra dollars, perhaps US$20 per day, for incidentals.

Money

The Thai currency is the baht. ATMs, which are abundant, are the easiest ways to get Thai baht. Have a supply of US dollars in cash on hand, just in case your card doesn't work. Banks or the rarer private moneychangers offer the best foreign-exchange rates. Credit cards are accepted in big cities and resort hotels but you'll need baht for family-run guesthouses or restaurants.
