TRIP PROFILE

What better way to discover the city than on bikes? This excursion combines historical city highlights with a special cultural touch through Thai culinary traditions, a one-of-a-kind experience guaranteed to work your muscles and your taste buds!

Venturing along backstreets get to know Chiang Mai from the eyes of a local as our guide shows you their home city. Explore unique temples with intricate details and architectural style particular to this region of Thailand. Our journey takes you through small roads and a neighbourhood market where the locals shop for their fresh ingredients. A warm welcome by our friendly chef into her home kitchen and it's time to roll up your sleeves and get started on a culinary adventure. With tips and tricks from an expert you will quickly discover how easy it is to prepare seemingly complex dishes. Then sit down and enjoy your creations. Bon appetit!

This is a 17 km ride that will take you on flat roads traveling at an easy pace. We ride mostly quiet lanes with little or no cars but on some sections we will be sharing with traffic. This tour will visit temples, which are considered a place of worship. Please wear a shirt with sleeves and shorts that cover the knees to show respect in these sacred places. Alternatively, you can bring a sarong to wrap around yourself during the temple visits.
