TRIP PROFILE

This tour covers 378 km over 6 days of riding in Portugal's interior region in the east and north of the country. The first 5 cycling days cover mountainous and rugged terrain, with historic villages and hilltop castles dotted along the valleys and plateaus. Scenic stretches through more wild areas in the national parks also feature prominently. Days 6 and 7 are focused on the Douro Valley, renowned for its terraced vineyards which are not just a great backdrop but also fun to cycle through.

The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of water and refreshments along the way.

Suitability: The tour is suitable for cyclists possessing a good level of physical fitness as the average climb per day is more than 900 m. Fitness will be a huge asset on those long days and challenging climbs. The tour is guided and fully supported, and a transfer is possible at certain points during each stage for those that find the riding too difficult. As the tour visits many charming villages, towns and ruins as well as national parks and vineyards, riding is not the only focus and a fair amount of time will be spent off-saddle to explore these fascinating and picturesque places. This includes a train and boat ride as well!

Biking Conditions: We ride an average of 63 km a day with average climbs of more than 900 m. The itinerary is roughly 60% tarmac and 40% off-road on double track / dirt roads / gravel roads. Except for day 7 in the Douro Valley (which is all on paved roads), the riding on the other days will contain a mix of surfaces. Throughout all days, the terrain is hilly and changeable with flat sections and a lot of climbs and descents. Some climbs can be gradual and up to 10 km while others are short but steep. Good handling skills will be an asset.

Day 1: Lisbon – Idanha-a-Nova

We pick you up from your hotels in Lisbon in the early afternoon and transfer 3 hours to the town of Idanha-a-Nova located in east-central Portugal. Upon arrival, we'll check into our accommodation, do a bike fitting, and take a stroll to the ruins of the town's 13th-century medieval castle. Here we can also get a good lay of the land for the cycling days ahead as we relish in stunning views over the surrounding countryside. We cap off the day with a welcome dinner.

Day 2: Idanha-a-Nova – Penamacor

In the morning, we ride out of Idanha-a-Nova and, after an initial 10 km, we find ourselves skirting along the southern shore of the Marechal Carmona Reservoir, offering scenic views over the calm waters. After another 5 km we arrive at the tranquil Chapel of Nossa Senhora do Almortão. From behind the Chapel, we dip into a lengthy stretch of back-country roads where we may encounter the occasional herd of cattle grazing on the edges of the extensive olive groves, vineyards, and wheat fields. At the 35 km mark we reach the village of Idanha-a-Velha which bears impressive vestiges of continuous occupation from the ancient Romans to the Knights Templar. Just another 10 km cycle north lies yet another gem of a historic village: Monsanto. Perched atop a rocky hill, the entire village of Monsanto is locked in a harmonious coexistence with giant boulders, offering fascinating visuals! We pass more villages and smaller hamlets before arriving at our hotel near the town of Penamacor.

Day 3: Penamacor - Rapoula do Côa

Today's focus is east-central Portugal's wild side as we cycle within the secluded Serra da Malcata Nature Reserve. As we enter the National Park outside of Penamacor, the scenery quickly changes from farmlands to dense Old World Mediterranean forest. This is the home of the elusive Iberian lynx as well as many other species of animals and vegetation. Expansive views abound, though be warned that it is a taxing gradual climb for the first 5 km, after which a relieving downhill section brings us to the beachy shores of Lake Meimão. Here the terrain flattens until we reach the village of Meimão where we'll conquer a steep 3 km climb to the top of a ridge with towering windmills. After catching our breath we continue more leisurely at higher elevation through a mix of rural areas and national park before arriving at our accommodation nestled in the countryside of Rapoula do Côa, renowned for its thermal springs in use since the time of the Romans. Indulge in a refreshing soak to reward your cycling efforts today!

Day 4: Rapoula do Côa - Castelo Rodrigo

Our journey today takes us through the Côa Valley, where the hills are crowned with picturesque medieval fortresses. The first 15 km follow the course of the Côa River and we will cross the Ponte de Sequeiros, a beautifully arched stone bridge. As the route diverts from the river we begin to enter the hills, riding up and down as we hop from one hilltop castle – and the charming villages nestled within – to the next. The first of these is Castelo Bom with its ruins overlooking a vast, rugged hinterland. A further 15 km north and we find ourselves entering the impressive gate of Almeida Castle, a true bastion renowned for its star-shaped defensive walls. From here we complete the final 25 km along narrow country lanes to the village Castelo Rodrigo. The serenity of this tiny cobblestoned village stands in sharp contrast to the remnants of the once fierce stronghold on which it sits.

Day 5: Castelo Rodrigo - Freixo de Espada à Cinta

A thrilling day awaits as we conquer roads and trails impressed upon the plateaus, escarpment and valleys of the Douro International Natural Park, an important wildlife corridor stretching north along both sides of Portuguese-Spanish border. Descending from Castelo Rodrigo, we ride 30 km along narrow off-road trails that dissect olive groves, shrubland and rocky outcrops. Greeting us at the end of this stretch is the small town of Barca D'Alva, which rests on the banks of the dreamy Douro River. We then cycle up meandering roads and sweeping curves leading to the ridge of Penedo Durão. Here the views peer deep into the gorges and mountains of neighboring Spain and soaring above we may spot eagles and vultures. After taking in this incredible scene we backtrack briefly and then turn north to ride along the vineyards and almond tree farms surrounding the historic town of Freixo de Espada à Cinta – our final destination for today.

Day 6: Freixo de Espada à Cinta - Pocinho – Peso da Régua

Today we head west into the heart of the Douro wine region, combining cycling with a scenic train ride. We start by almost immediately trading paved roads for narrow rural trails as we climb steadily to the rustic village of Mazouco, commanding panoramic views over the surrounding mountains and valleys. We then cut across the Trás-os-Montes plateau, passing countless farms and villages, before rolling into the old mining town of Torre de Moncorvo. From here we follow a winding mountain bike path to rendezvous again with the Douro River, this time near the village of Pocinho which is the terminus of the Douro railway line. We'll pack up our bikes and board the train for an enriching finale to the day. Relish in endless scenes of the wide Douro River and terraced vineyards etched into the steep, sun-kissed hills. After roughly two hours we disembark in the wine-rich town of Peso da Régua; our home for the final 2 nights of the tour. How about a glass or two of authentic port wine to unwind?

Day 7: Douro Wine Region Loop

For our last cycling day we use our hotel in Régua as a base and ride a wide loop all along paved roads through the surrounding wine region. We begin with a bridge crossing and then follow the course of the Douro River downstream, enjoying a relatively flat ride flanked by vineyards, orange groves and estates. After around 12 km we begin our climb into the hills, meandering along the centuries' old schist walls that give shape to the Douro valley's famed – UNESCO World Heritage awarded – terraced vineyards. Once we reach the top, we'll enjoy a long stretch of more gently undulating riding, accompanied by uninterrupted views of the river valley. At around 35 km we reach the storied city of Lamego and its baroque-era church perched atop a hill with a massive and intricate stairway leading up to it. From here we conclude the ride with a pleasant downhill back into Régua. Tonight's dinner will be a feast to celebrate the unforgettable cycling journey of the last six days!

Day 8: Douro River Cruise to Porto

Having traversed a large swath of inland Portugal over the past week, the time has come to head to the coast and end our tour in Porto. And we'll do so in true style: aboard a boat cruising down the storied Douro River. The total cruising time is around 6 hours and includes lunch on board. Starting directly from the pier in Régua, simply relax and unwind as you take in a never ending photoreel of terraced vineyards carved into the surrounding hillsides. You might even see some Rabelo boats - historically used to transport wine along the river - darting by us as we leisurely meander downstream. Our ship will pass through some impressive river locks before arriving at the pier in Porto, Portugal's second largest city located on the Atlantic Coast. Our tour concludes with a shared transfer to your hotel in Porto (feel free to ask us for recommendations!). We suggest spending at least 2 days in this stunning city.

Breakfast, Lunch

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section.

If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is a mountain bike in good mechanical order.

We also have E-Bikes available for hire, but they are limited in number & size - please send an email to us to check on availability.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

Portugal is a member of the Schengen Area. Citizens of the UK, US, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and Japan (among others) do not require a visa for tourism and are permitted to stay for up to 90 days within any 180-day period.

All visa-exempt travellers are required to obtain a valid ETIAS (European Travel Information and Authorisation System) approval prior to arrival. This is a digital authorisation linked to your passport, valid for three years, and must be applied for online before you travel. Additionally, all non-EU/Schengen citizens are subject to the Entry/Exit System (EES). This replaces manual passport stamping with a digital registration of your entry and exit, including a biometric scan (facial image and fingerprints) at the border.

For citizens of the EU, Switzerland, and Norway, entry is permitted with a valid National ID card or passport. If you are from a country that requires a Schengen Visa, you must apply through a Portuguese consulate or embassy. Please ensure your passport is valid for at least three months beyond your intended departure date.

Health & Insurance

No specific vaccinations are mandatory for entry, though being up-to-date on standard boosters (Tetanus, Hep A/B) is always recommended.

While Portugal has high-quality healthcare, we strongly recommend comprehensive travel insurance that covers cycling activities and medical evacuation. If you are an EU citizen, ensure you carry a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). UK citizens should carry their Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) to access reciprocal state-provided healthcare for necessary treatments.

Weather

Portugal's climate is influenced by both the Mediterranean and the Atlantic, creating diverse conditions for riding.

- The Best Window: April to June and September to October are the "Goldilocks" months, offering mild temperatures and clear skies.
- Summer Heat: In July and August, the interior—particularly the Alentejo—can see temperatures exceeding 35°C. During these months, coastal routes are preferred as they benefit from cooling Atlantic breezes.
- Winter: The Algarve remains mild, making it a popular winter training spot, though the northern mountains can be wet and receive snow at higher altitudes.
- Gear: Layers are essential. Even on sunny days, the Atlantic coast can be surprisingly breezy and cool once the sun sets.

Food

Portuguese gastronomy is honest, seasonal, and deeply tied to the sea. The national obsession is Bacalhau (salted cod), but you will also find exceptional fresh grilled sardines and octopus along the coast. In the interior, look for hearty Alentejo pork and game dishes. No visit is complete without a Pastel de Nata (custard tart) from a local bakery. Most meals are served with regional bread and premium olive oils. We cater to all dietary needs; please let us know your requirements at the time of booking.

Drink

Hydration is a priority, especially during inland climbs. We provide ample water and local snacks during all rides. Portugal's wine culture is world-class; try the crisp, effervescent Vinho Verde in the north, robust reds in the Alentejo, and the iconic Port wine in the Douro. For a traditional digestif, a small glass of Ginjinha (sour cherry liqueur) is a local favourite. Soft drinks and alcohol during meals are not included in the tour price.

Solo Travellers

SpiceRoads does not charge a mandatory single supplement. We will arrange for you to share a room with another traveller of the same gender. If no match is available, you will receive a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer to guarantee your own private room, a single supplement is available at the rate listed in the tour pricing.

Extra Expenses

Portugal remains one of the most affordable destinations in Western Europe. Budget for personal incidentals such as post-ride coffees (a local bica), unique souvenirs like cork-based handicrafts or hand-painted tiles (azulejos), and tips for your local support team.

Money

The currency of Portugal is the Euro (€).

- ATMs: Known as Multibanco, ATMs are plentiful in airports and towns, accepting most international debit and credit cards.
- Cards: Visa and Mastercard are widely accepted in hotels, restaurants, and most shops.
- Cash: While the country is highly digitised, it is wise to carry a small amount of cash for tips or for use in traditional "Tascas" (taverns) in smaller rural villages.
