TRIP PROFILE

This trip covers 756 kilometres in 8 cycling days, crossing the southern part of the Indian sub-continent. Daily distances are often over 100 kilometres on paved roads, and while most are relatively flat, there are 2 very challenging days of climbing in the Western Ghat mountains towards the end of the trip. Our route is scenic and full of variety as we ride from one coast to the other, through ancient civilizations, off-the-beaten-path farming communities, majestic mountains, and tropical backwaters.

Suitability: This trip is suitable for the experienced road cyclist, and those comfortable riding over 100 kilometres per day on back to back days. Climbing experience and a good cycling fitness will be helpful on days in the Western Ghat mountains. However, the support vehicle will always be nearby for those that need it.

Biking Conditions: This trip is on quiet, tarmac back roads in good condition, but keep in mind that this is India! There may be sections of rough road and chaotic traffic in and around urban areas. Your local cycling guide will keep you aware of what's ahead, and the air-conditioned support vehicle will ride behind the entire way should you need a rest.

Day 1 Arrive in Chennai

Arrive in Chennai, formerly known as Madras, capital of the state of Tamil Nadu. A fascinating mix of modern and traditional, this Indian metropolis has plenty of cosmopolitan and historic diversions for visitors. Feel free to explore some of the city's many temples, colonial churches, museums, and more before meeting up at our hotel in the afternoon for a trip briefing. In the evening, our guide will welcome us to India in true Tamil style with a lavish dinner of South Indian cuisine!

Day 2 Mahabalipuram to Puducherry

Our first cycling day of the tour begins with an hour and a half transfer out of the urban sprawl of Chennai to Mahabalipuram, a coastal town famous for its ancient rock-cut monuments and temples that are now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We'll have some time to peruse and admire some of these thousand-year-old relics before hopping on our bikes and enjoying the first ride of the trip! We'll make our way out of Mahabalipuram, heading inland to the backroads of rural Tamil Nadu. The terrain is mostly flat as we pass through farmland and farming villages, dotted with colourful Hindu temples famous to the region. There's a short and gentle climb at the end of our ride before we reach the coastal town of Puducherry, a former French colony on the coast. Take a stroll to admire the uniquely French colonial architecture in this easy-going town before meeting the group for dinner.

Day 3 Puducherry to Kumbakonam

It's time to break away from the Bay of Bengal and begin our journey to the other coast! We'll transfer out of Puducherry to begin our ride in the countryside. Though our ride today is long, and the terrain is mostly flat like the previous day's ride, but the scenery is noticeably greener, especially after we cross the Kollidam River. It's a pleasant ride, passing through small but colourful Tamil villages with their many temples and the occasional church. We'll ride directly to our accommodation for the evening, a stunningly designed hotel showcasing traditional Indian and colonial architecture in a lush and serene setting. After the ride, you'll have time to enjoy the pleasant surroundings of the hotel, take a dip in the pool, or enjoy the Ayurvedic spa.

After breakfast, we head out from our pleasant hotel in Kumbakonam, riding east along the Kaveri River. It's a flat ride along the river for roughly 45 kilometres before we head south towards the town of Pudukkottai. There are some very gentle and gradual climbs before we reach our destination, but overall it's a pleasant ride through an area of Tamil Nadu that seldom sees foreign tourists- especially not cyclists! Enjoy the view of authentic South Indian life. After reaching our destination at a rural hotel, you'll have time to freshen up and maybe take a short stroll through the surrounding countryside, including a temple full of horse sculptures honouring Ayyanar, a Hindu deity, before rejoining the group for dinner.

Day 5 Pudukkottai to Madurai

Today we'll rise early to get a head start on the South Asian sun and heat. Our destination for the day: the ancient city of Madurai, one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. After 4 days of cycling through Tamil Nadu, today's ride is an easy achievement. The ride begins with a fast and flat warm-up, followed by a gradual climb into gently undulating terrain at around 20 kilometres, passing through small towns and farming villages. We'll have a slow, several-kilometre climb as we pass by the Alagar Kovil Forest Reserve, before making a smooth descent into the city of Madurai. Our accommodation is a beautiful boutique hotel that is centrally located for our sightseeing day off the bikes tomorrow. Take a dip in the pool, sip a drink at the bar, or get some laundry done before rejoining the group in the evening for dinner.

After breakfast, we'll head out into the city to see some of the most famous sights, like the Meenakshi temple, dedicated to the Hindu goddess of the same name, and adorned with thousands of colourfully painted sculptures. Explore this vast sacred site and its beautiful works of art, a peaceful oasis amid the teeming city. Your afternoon is free to continue exploring, with lunch and dinner at your leisure. Your guide will be happy to provide suggestions, and you are also welcome to spend your day relaxing at the hotel. Be sure to rest well for a big day tomorrow!

Day 7 Madurai to Chinnakanal

After a day off the bikes, we're well-rested and ready for a big day in the Western Ghats, the storied mountain range that provides water for the state of Tamil Nadu. We'll transfer out of busy Madurai to our start point among the quiet villages with picture-perfect views across the farmland to the mountains. The ride starts with a flat and steady warm-up for 40 kilometres as we head west - straight for the Ghats! Our journey today is a long climb. The terrain can be quite tough, with sustained ascents that go on for 20 kilometres. Be sure to keep your bidon topped-up and take breaks when necessary, or just stop to admire the view. After we reach the top of the climb, we'll enjoy a nice downhill that takes us straight into lush Kerala Province, a sudden change of landscape from the arid to the verdant. The last 10 kilometres are rolling hills, with a final steep ascent to our accommodation for the evening, situated firmly within the Western Ghats. Tonight we'll enjoy a hearty dinner to fuel up for a final day of riding in these impressive mountains!

Ride out into the soft morning sunlight on the perfect rows of tea fields. A series of plateaus separated by steep climbs takes us deeper into the Western Ghats on winding mountain roads, with some winding descents into plunging gorges. We'll get a break from the South Indian heat, with cool mountain air and forested slopes offering some shade on our ride, especially as we skirt the edge of Mathikettan Skola National Park with its gigantic trees and rushing rivers. Today's climbs are less gradual, and your legs will be tested on short but steep gradients across the rugged landscape, backdropped by mountain panoramas and waterfalls, all the way up to our destination for the day- the hill station of Vagamon. Our accommodation for the evening is a hotel perched amid these serene natural surroundings, the perfect place to get a good night's sleep after a challenging day!

Watch the scenery change from pine-lined ridges to tropical forest as we descend over 1,000 meters almost back to sea level. Welcome to Kerala! After the descent, it's an undulating ride through the lush countryside of Kerala province, including stops at historic churches and corner stores, where we can taste fresh buttermilk, a local specialty.. There are hills to watch out for, but nothing we won't be able to handle after our last two days of climbing! We'll pass through the town of Kottayam before a final stretch through the peaceful backwaters to Kumarakom, famous for its houseboat lifestyle and bird sanctuary. Enjoy a relaxing afternoon at our resort, located on the shores of Vembanadu Lake (a lagoon off the Arabian Sea). Enjoy a relaxing afternoon at our resort, located on the shores of Vembanadu Lake.

Our final cycling day is a treat: a scenic joyride through the serene backwaters of Kerala as we make our way to the Arabian Sea. The first half of our route takes us through lush coconut plantations and backwater fish farms tended by fisherman and stalked by a wide array of birdlife. The road is dotted with temples, churches, countless schoolchildren on all manner of bicycles, and local women in vibrantly coloured saris that stand out like flowers against the green surroundings. Around halfway through our ride, we meet our goal - the sandy shores of the Arabian Sea! We'll stop for lunch before completing our journey on a coastal road, all the way to Kochi. After checking into our hotel in the old town, you'll have time to pack up your bike, freshen up, enjoy the pool or go for a stroll through this laid back beach town before joining the group once again for a final South Indian feast. Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section.

If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is in good mechanical order, and bring any spare parts you may need.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

As India is such a large country, the climate and weather conditions vary across the vast region. However, the country is divided into six main climatic zones ranging from arid desert in the west, alpine tundra and glaciers in the north, and humid tropical in the southwest and the island territories.

We have tours in the following regions

Rajasthan: weather can be divided into four seasons - summer, monsoon, post-monsoon, and winter. Summer from April to June is the hottest season with temperatures ranging from 32C to 45C. Monsoon extends from July to September with a slight drop in temperature but plenty of rain. The post-monsoon period is from October to November where the lowest temperatures can reach as low as 18C. From December to March is the cold season and the best time to visit Rajasthan. Temperatures range from 15C-18C with little or no humidity.

Kerala: mostly has a tropical wet climate, which can be divided into three seasons. Summer is from February to May and is generally hot and humid. Monsoon season begins in June till around October or November. December to January holds the best weather for travel as it is cooler and the rains have subsided.

Tamil Nadu: Tamil Nadu has a tropical climate with hot weather year-round and an average annual temperature of 24 to 32 degrees Celsius. Summers from April to June are very hot, often above 40 degrees inland. The months from October to March usually have daytime temperatures between 20 and 28 degrees, making this the most pleasant season to visit.

Leh/Ladakh has a cold desert like climate with somewhat extreme conditions. summers bring in harsh direct sunlight at such high altitudes while winters can get as cold as below freezing point. Lowest ever recorded was -23C. May to August is the best time for tourists to enjoy the weather and everything it has to offer.
