TRIP PROFILE

This tour is 100% on road, and we designed the route with road bikers in mind.

Our trip starts with a pick up from Loei airport and a transfer to our hotel in Loei. We then warm up with a loop around Loei.

The total distance is 348 or 467 km (depending on which rides you choose) in 4 riding days. Some of the distances are quite long, but the roads are smooth, making it an achievable distance on a road bike. The trip is fully supported, and your guide's expert knowledge of the area and terrain means that you always know what is coming up in terms of distance and difficulty. This makes a tremendous difference, as does the constant supply of cold drinks, ice, and fresh fruit.

Suitability: Fitness, of course, will be a huge asset on those long days and the undulating hills. The tour is fully supported, and the bus is always close at hand for those that find the riding too difficult.

Biking Conditions: The roads are 100% tarmac and in good condition. There are hills, mostly rolling with some shorter steeper sections.

Day 1 Arrival Loei - Loei Loop

Arrival Loei – Pick up from the airport and transfer to hotel. The afternoon ride is a nice loop ride starting and finishing at our hotel in Loei. We will ride east out of town and soon find ourselves on quiet country roads through small villages and into the rice-fields. We have a few climbs but nothing too serious.

Day 2 Loei to Phu Ruea

Today we head west and into the hills towards Phu Reau national park. The park is named after Phu Ruea, a table-top mountain with gentle slopes and our main climb of the day takes us up onto the plateau which is shaded by pine trees. We stop at a very scenic coffee shop just before Phu Reau town and then enjoy a sweeping descent before climbing again into Dan Sai, our final destination.

Day 3 Phu Ruea to Chiang Kham

From Dan Sai, we climb out of the valley and up onto the plateau before a sweeping descent down into the Mekong river valley. We will follow the Hueang River before arriving at the majestic Mekong, one of Asia's great rivers. We follow the Mekong along very quiet, scenic roads all the way to Chiang Khan. The sleepy, little-known Mekong-side town is full of traditional timber shophouses and has become a trendy destination for Thais with trendy cafes, shops and some smart bars and restaurants. That said, Chiang Khan (เชียงคาน) is far from spoiled and is still a charming place to visit. with photogenic views of the river and the Lao mountains beyond.

Day 4 Chiang Kham to Loei

From Chiang Kham, we ride along the Mekong before a gentle climb out of the valley and across a patchwork of rolling hills back to Loei. We think riding in Loei is some of the best in Thailand. The roads are quiet yet in good condition and while situated in the mountains the climbs are not as long or steep as they can be in northern Thailand. This, along with endless steam of awe-inspiring landscapes and the charm of Dan Sai, Loei and especially Chiang Kham make Loei one of cycling's best-kept secrets.

Disclaimer: The adventure cycling tours we operate often go beyond the beaten track, and the countries where we ride are not always predictable. Due to these reasons, it is occasionally necessary to reroute or update itineraries. Our guarantee is that we will not change a trip unless for safety or to improve it. Our listed hotels are always accurate at the time of writing, but should we have to change any hotel, it will always be for a similar or better one.

NUTS & BOLTS

Bikes

Because some people can't imagine going on a trip without their own beloved bicycle, we do not provide them as part of this tour. However, you can hire bikes locally for the price listed in the tour pricing section. The bikes are Trek 2.1 C, Domane 2.0/AL5 and carbon Émonda S5 road bikes, with Shimano 105 components and seat posts. If you have your own saddle that you are comfortable with, you are welcome to bring it, and we'll fit it. You might like to consider bringing your own pedal system if you use one, and please make sure to bring your shoes and cleats. If you bring your own bike, please make sure it is a road bike in good mechanical order.

Bike Repairs

Basic spares and tools are carried by the guide and on the support vehicle, though we cannot guarantee having spares for every conceivable problem. Carrying a basic tool kit, a spare tube and a pump while riding is recommended.

Safety

Wearing a helmet is required on all our biking adventures and is non negotiable. If you do not wear a helmet you will not be allowed to cycle. Your tour leader is trained in first aid and emergency rescue, but to a large degree you must be responsible for your own safety while riding. It is therefore compulsory that you take out travel insurance that will cover you for a mountain biking tour.

Guides

You will be led by a local English-speaking guide and if the group is 9 people or more we will add another guide to the tour. All our guides are well informed in the history, culture and religions of the area where you are biking and are skilled at passing that knowledge on to you. Your guide is also medically trained and an experienced cyclist, able to handle most minor repairs en route.

THE NITTY GRITTY

Passports and Visas

All nationalities require a passport for entry into Thailand. Please ensure your passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond the duration of your stay in the country. If staying less than 30 days then a visa in advance is not required by European, North American, Australian and many other nationalities. Please check this page to see if you qualify. You will need to show proof of an onward flight out of Thailand to be eligible for the visa on arrival. This is strictly enforced.

Health

We recommend that you visit a travel medical doctor and ask about the following vaccinations: typhoid, polio, tetanus and hepatitis A. A certificate for Yellow Fever is required when arriving from an infected area within six days.

Weather

Thailand generally has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. The North and Central region have a tropical climate with fairly high humidity. Northeast Thailand has a humid hot and dry weather alternatively with medium rain while the coastal areas of the east is humid and hot with intermittent rain. The South of Thailand has a tropical climate with fairly high humidity.

There are three seasons: from March to June it is hot and dry, with temperatures between 27°C/80 F and 40°C/104 F, with night temperatures in the 20s. The rainy season is from July to October, but temperatures are slightly lower, because of the effect of the rain. During this time it will not rain continuously, but in sharp bursts, and the sun can come out quickly. The cooler season is from October to February, with average temperatures between 20°C/68 F and 30°C/86 F.

Food

Meals are included as per the itinerary where B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner. Most meals are local and feature noodles, rice, curries, and soups. Any special dietary requirements can also be catered for as well. Please let us know at the time of booking.

Drink

Keeping you completely hydrated is a job we take very seriously. Cold water, some energy-restoring local fruit, and soft drinks are included in the tour price while riding. Soft drinks and other beverages during meals are not included. Beer is freely available everywhere but is NOT included in the price.

Solo Travelers

SpiceRoads does not require you to pay a surcharge for traveling alone. We will arrange for you to share accommodation with another traveler of the same gender and if we cannot match you up we will provide a single room at no extra charge. If you prefer not to share a single supplement is payable to guarantee your own room. The cost of the single supplement is listed above.

Extra Expenses

We recommend that you tuck away a few extra dollars, perhaps US$20 per day, for incidentals.

Money

The Thai currency is the baht. ATMs, which are abundant, are the easiest ways to get Thai baht. Have a supply of US dollars in cash on hand, just in case your card doesn't work. Banks or the rarer private moneychangers offer the best foreign-exchange rates. Credit cards are accepted in big cities and resort hotels but you'll need baht for family-run guesthouses or restaurants.
